Proposed Amendments

Preliminary amendment submitted February 14, 2002

Principal Arguments and Other Matters

The Examiner was contacted because the number of claims indicated in the Notice of Allowability did not correspond to attorney records.

Results of Interview

A preliminary amendment submitted on February 14, 2002 was apparently lost and was not of record in the application. Examiner Leary kindly agreed to consider and enter the amendment under Rule 312.

Appl. No. : 10/069,441
Filed : June 4, 2002

REMARKS

Amendments to the present application were made to place the application in accordance with practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office and to more clearly claim the invention. This amendment corresponds to the preliminary amendment previously submitted on February 14, 2002. The only changes made have been to reformat the amendment to conform to the current rules for submission of amendments. No new matter is added herewith.

Examiner interview

A telephonic interview was conducted with Examiner Leary on July 1, 2004 which is summarized on page 7 of this paper.

Abstract

An Abstract on a separate sheet is provided herewith.

Conclusion

Should any further issues arise which may delay issuance of the present application, the Examiner is respectfully invited to contact the under-signed attorney at the telephone number below.

Please charge any additional fees, including any fees for additional extension of time, or credit overpayment to Deposit Account No. 11-1410.

Respectfully submitted,
